21 February: International Mother Tongue Day

International Mother Language Day is a worldwide annual observance held on 21 February to promote awareness of linguistic and cultural diversity and to promote multilingualism. First announced by UNESCO on 17 November 1999, it was formally recognized by the United Nations General Assembly with the adoption of UN resolution 56/262 Multilingualism in 2002. Mother Language Day is part of a broader initiative to promote the preservation and protection of all languages used by peoples of the world as adopted by the UN General Assembly on 16 May 2007. The idea to celebrate International Mother Language Day was the initiative of Bangladesh. In Bangladesh 21 February is the anniversary of the day when Bangladeshis fought for recognition for the Bangla language.

En ek kan rock in my taal.
Ek maak amok in my taal.
Ek kan skok in my taal.
Ek kan rock in my taal.
My asem gly deur my taal.
Ek word verlei deur my taal.
En ek kan vry in my taal.
Ek kan rock in my taal.
Ek maak lawaai in my taal.
Ek word so kwaai in my taal.
Ek kan jou braai in my taal.
En ek kan rock in my taal!
