(6) Although the schools are on break, all officials are considered to be on duty and may be required to assist with official duties as and when required or determined by the principal and the School Management Team.

(7) All officials must report to school on 17 August 2020.

(8) The principal and the School Management Team must determine and implement a rotational leave plan to ensure that the principal and each member of the School Management Team, respectively, are allowed at least a five day break during the first three weeks of the break.

(9) The School Management Team must use the first week of the break, which is from 27 to 31 July 2020, to make all the necessary arrangements for the return of the respective grades, as contemplated in sub-direction (1).

(10) All officials responsible for the education of the respective grades that are returning to school, must return to school as contemplated in sub-direction (1) or as otherwise determined by the School Management Team.

(11) The Head of Department must ensure that the national school nutrition programme is made accessible to every qualifying learner.

(12) The Head of Department, or a person duly authorised by him or her, must make reasonable arrangements with schools to ensure that the provision of learning material, therapeutic support and continued teaching to learners occur during the school break.”.

Substitution of direction 6 of Directions
5. The following direction is hereby substituted for direction 6 of the Directions:

“6. School attendance

(1) A parent, caregiver or a designated family member may choose not to send a learner to school for reasons that may include—

(a) any medical condition of the learner, including comorbidities;
(b) anxiety and fear related to COVID-19, concern for family members that are over the age of 60 or concern for family members with comorbidities;
(c) a preference for the learner receiving learning and teaching instruction through the online or virtual platforms provided by an independent institution which is not related to the school that the child is registered at;
(d) a preference for the learner receiving learning and teaching instruction through the online or virtual platforms provided by the school; or
(e) an application for home education and deregistration of a learner from the school.

(2) (a) A parent, caregiver or a designated family member who chooses not to send a learner to school for any of the reasons contemplated in sub-direction (1)(a), (b) or (c) must apply, through the school that the learner attends, in terms of section 4 of the South African Schools Act, to the Head of Department, or a person duly authorised by him or her, for the full or partial exemption of a learner from compulsory school attendance for the duration of national state of disaster.

(b) The application contemplated in paragraph (a)—

(i) must be on a form substantially similar to Annexure E1, stating the reasons for the application for exemption, which should include evidence of a medical condition, in instances where the reason relate to a medical condition or comorbidity;

(ii) must be accompanied by a form substantially similar to Annexure E2, declaring the commitment for taking responsibility for the learners continued learning at home, which outlines the conditions that need to be adhered to by the parent, caregiver or a designated family member; and

(iii) may be subject to conditions.

(c) The Head of Department, or a person duly authorised by him or her, must make arrangements with the schools, to ensure that the school consults with parents, caregivers or designated family members to receive the learning material for learners who are granted full or partial exemption from attending school, to ensure that continued learning takes place.

(d) A parent, caregiver or a designated family member who chooses not to send a learner to school must ensure that teaching and learning material are collected or accessed, as per arrangement with the school, to ensure that continued learning takes place.

A parent, caregiver or a designated family member who chooses not to send a learner to school for the reason contemplated in sub-direction (1)(d), is not required to apply for exemption from compulsory school attendance.

(4) (a) A parent, caregiver or a designated family member who chooses to deregister their child from the school and apply for a learner to be enrolled for home education, as contemplated in in sub-direction (1)(e), must comply with the legal requirements for the provision of home education, as contemplated in section 51 of the South African Schools Act.

(b) A learner who is deregistered from a school will have to reapply for admission and adhere to the admission requirements if they wish to return to a public school.
(5) Where a learner is self-isolated or quarantined due to being in contact with a person who has tested positive or is displaying symptoms of COVID-19, or is isolated following testing positive for COVID-19—
   (a) the parent, caregiver or a designated family member must inform the school as soon as possible of the learner’s condition; and
   (b) the school must inform the Head of Department of the incident through the district office.

(6) Where a learner tested positive for COVID-19 through the processes at the school and the school is aware of the results, the school must, as soon as possible—
   (a) inform the parent, caregiver or a designated family member of the of the learner’s condition and—
      (i) request them to fetch the learner from school;
      (ii) advise them to refer the learner to a medical practitioner; and
      (iii) advise them keep the learner self-isolated or quarantined at home; and
   (b) inform the Head of Department of the incident through the district office.

(7) The application process for exemption as contemplated in direction 6 also apply to learners registered at a school but who fall outside compulsory school attendance as regulated in section 3 of the South African Schools Act.

(8) Learners who have already applied for the full or partial exemption from compulsory school attendance for any of the reasons contemplated in sub-direction (1), must not re-apply for exemption.

(9) The principal of the school, or the person duly authorised by him or her, must, with the consent of a parent, caregiver or a designated family member make arrangements for a learner who is registered at the school to receive psychosocial support services, where required.”.
Insertion of directions 6A and 6B in Directions

6. The following directions are hereby inserted in the Directions after direction 6:

"6A. Administering application for exemption"

(1) Where a parent, caregiver or a designated family member of a learner applied to the Head of Department, or a person duly authorised by him or her, for full or partial exemption of the learner from compulsory school attendance, as contemplated in direction 6, the Head of Department must exempt the learner, as contemplated in direction 6, if he or she is satisfied that—

(a) the exemption is in the interest of the learner;

(b) the parent, caregiver or a designated family member will take responsibility to oversee the learning of the learner at home; and

(c) the parent, caregiver or a designated family member will comply with any reasonable conditions set by the Head of Department for the full or partial exemption.

(2) Where a parent, caregiver or a designated family member of a learner has applied for exemption of a learner from compulsory school attendance, as contemplated in direction 6, the learner is exempted from attending school until such time as the Head of Department has considered and responded to the application for exemption.

(3) The Head of Department must consider and finalise the application for exemption within 30 days of receipt of the application.

(4) Subject to sub-direction (5), the Head of Department may withdraw the exemption referred to in sub-direction (1).

(5) The Head of Department may not withdraw the registration until he or she—
(a) has informed the parent, in writing, of his or her intention to do so and the reasons therefor;
(b) has granted the parent an opportunity to make representations to him or her in relation to such decision; and
(c) has duly considered any such representations received.

(6) A parent, caregiver or a designated family member who is aggrieved by the decision of the Head of Department to withdraw an exemption of a learner from compulsory school attendance in terms of sub-direction (4), may lodge an appeal, in writing, to the Member of the Executive Council against the decision to withdraw the exemption.

6B. Registration status of learner and marking of attendance register

(1) In the event that a learner is granted an exemption from compulsory school attendance, as contemplated in direction 6, or is unable to attend school as contemplated in direction 5(7)—
   (a) nothing in these Directions purports to alter the registration status of a learner at the specific school where the learner is registered; and
   (b) the learner continues to be registered with their school.
(2) A school must maintain accurate daily attendance registers of learners.
(3) A learner must be marked absent in the attendance register when the learner is not physically present at school.
(4) The school must maintain records of—
   (a) all learners who are unable to attend school for reasons contemplated in direction 5(7); and
   (b) all exemptions granted in terms of direction 6.”.

Amendment of direction 12 of Directions

7. Direction 12 of the Directions is hereby amended by the insertion after sub-direction (1) of the following sub-directions:

“(1A) To ensure the sufficient supply of cloth face masks, in compliance with regulation 5(3)(c) of the Regulations, the principal of a public school, must request the Provincial Department of Education, in writing, through the district office, to procure cloth face masks required by a public school.

(1B) The District Director must process the request by the principal timeously and forward it to the Provincial Department of Education, without delay.

(1C) The Provincial Department of Education must ensure that the procurement of cloth face masks is finalised and that the cloth face masks are delivered to public schools timeously.”.

Amendment of direction 14 of Directions

8. Direction 14 of the Directions is hereby amended by the substitution in sub-direction (4), for paragraph (a) of the following paragraph:

“(a) provide each official and learner at public schools, with two cloth face masks or face shields; and”.
