CASE STUDYMANGO GLADNESS

After Mrs Naidoo's husband was transferred, they moved to a small mining town. The new house has a big kitchen and three big mango trees in the back yard. The mining community is small and the local supermarket belongs to Mrs Naidoo's neighbour and they supply the community with their daily needs.

To contribute towards the family's budget, Mrs. Naidoo and her two teenage daughters decide to sell their well-known family's atchar to the community. The recipe is a family favourite and she is convinced that the community would like her recipe.

RECIPE:

9 green mangos
4 red peppers
4 onions
250 ml vinegar
500 g brown sugar
25 g salt
Peel of 2 lemons

Peel and chop the mangos into small pieces. Pour over the vinegar. Chop the onions and red peppers and add it to the mangos.
