South Africa's Snapplify recognised by UNESCO

Following an exceptional launch of our e-library project in collaboration with the Eastern Cape Department of Education recently, we are thrilled to have been honoured with the prestigious UNESCO King Sejong Literacy Prize for 2023.

This recognition is a testament to our work with the Department of Basic Education and our Africa e-library program. Our program not only addresses the critical need for accessible digital educational resources but also fosters literacy learning for individuals from diverse linguistic backgrounds.

The impact of our e-Library project goes beyond the confines of the classroom, as was evident at the launch. Through the collaborative efforts of local government, educators, parents, and the wider community, we are fostering a passion for reading and making a direct contribution to the development of sustainable societies.

We would love to partner with you and tell you more about our e-library program! Reach out to hello@snapplify.com and let us help you achieve your digital education goals.
